

MAJOR MARKEY HERE

San Juan Hero Rejoins His Regiment at Fort Douglas.

SERENADE IN HIS HONOR

HIS HEROIC CONDUCT IN FRONT OF SANTIAGO.

Succeeded Colonel Liscom in Command of the Regiment—Brings Back the Famous Spanish Cat Found in a Captured Block-house—Private Hunter Dies—Notes.

Major Alfred C. Markey rejoined his command at Fort Douglas yesterday, after a two months' leave of absence, the greater part of which he enjoyed at Philadelphia. The surroundings of the regiment were viewed by the major for the first time since his departure last April, and as he was here to set foot at the base of the Wasatch range, he breathed a fervent sigh of satisfaction.

Captain Leavelle met Major Markey at the depot, and drove at once to the post, where a pleasant surprise was in waiting. Bandmaster Schaffner had arranged a serenade, and as the major was escorted through the post with the band playing the "Dixie" march, a serenade was given by the band.

The facts, however, are well known. On the 1st of July, when Lieutenant Colonel Liscom was wounded, Major Markey succeeded to the command of the regiment, and during the campaign he distinguished himself by his gallant and heroic conduct.

Upon arriving after a night march at Honey Lake, Markey found himself in command, not only of the Twenty-fourth, but also of parts of several volunteer regiments.

The officers of the medical department had their hands full in the treatment of the sick, so there fell upon Major Markey, not alone the command of these troops, but the entire sanitation of the army.

Upon him devolved the charge of the railroad from the Juragua mines to the ore dock at Santiago harbor, the transportation of the sick, the destruction of buildings, the policing of the hospitals and volunteer camps, unloading vessels of supplies, the burial of the dead, the care of the property left behind by volunteer regiments, and hundreds of minor duties, all discharged in a highly successful manner.

In view of the fact that the regiment was greatly weakened, and that a large number of available officers had been reduced by disease to six or seven.

It was through his kindness and faithful attention that the few remaining men under his command, an officer at the post yesterday said the following tribute to the major: "While at Honey Lake I appeared almost incredible that one man could do as much and stand as long as was endured and accomplished by Major Markey."

Looking back upon the time spent there, his work and his endurance seem nothing short of wonderful, and in my opinion no honor that can be bestowed upon a soldier can be greater than his services deserve."

THE REGIMENTAL MASCOT. "Supaello," the queen of Sheba, in the name adopted from Rudyard Kipling's "On the Road to Mandalay," and bestowed upon the prettiest pel. feline seen in the mountains of the West.

Major Markey is glad to be again with the "crack and peals," and for the present will be the guest of Captain Leavelle.

Death of Private Hunter. Private Jerry Hunter of company D died yesterday at the post hospital, of pneumonia of the lungs, and was given a military burial by his regiment.

Private Hunter was one of the most favorably known soldiers in his company. He will be remembered by some as having been coachman for Mrs. Girard, who formerly was at the post.

Post Notes. Company D was newly outfitted yesterday with all the camp-life paraphernalia, including caps, bayonets, cartridge belts, haversacks and straps, canteens, haversacks, tin cups, forks, knives, spoons, gunnings and tents. The khaki uniform may come later.

The programme for the band entertainment in the post ball Wednesday evening has been arranged as follows: March—"Admiral George Dewey," "Cory," "Oberon," Weber.

Selection—"Around the Metropolis of New York," by Beaver. "Star-spangled Banner." Soloists: Mr. Luther Johnson, cornet. Mr. J. A. McCoy, baritone. Mr. Ed Lee, tuba.

The band is to have a complete set of new uniforms this week, which will vary in style from that of the present. The blouse will be after the regulation pattern, and will be trimmed with white mofar. With this acquisition, Chief Musician Schaffner expects his men to present a handsome appearance.

A number of the "Chattanooga" company visited the post yesterday, and obtained from the available post office officers' salutes and the old-style uniform.

Private William Johnson of company H, Twenty-fourth United States Infantry, stationed at Fort Douglas, has, upon his own application, been ordered transferred to the Ninth cavalry, with headquarters at Fort Grant, Ariz. The expense of the transfer will be borne by the soldier himself.

MRS. CODY'S ANGER. She was the "scapegoat for the whole dirty crowd." Albany, N. Y., Dec. 5.—The fifth day of the trial of Mrs. Cody on the charge of blackmail was resumed in the county court today, with Mrs. Cody again on the stand under the cross-examination of Delaney Nicoll, counsel for the Goetts.

William Frazer, a shepherd of the county, testified that he saw Mrs. Cody on the night of the murder of Mrs. Angel, under her maiden name of Sarah Ann Brown, and asked her if she had ever seen the book. She replied in the negative.

During the afternoon session, Mrs. Cody was subjected to a severe cross-examination by Nicoll, and lost her temper for the first time since the trial began. She accused the witness of lying.

Washington Official Note. Olympia, Wash., Dec. 5.—Following is the official vote of Washington: Congress: Jones (Rep.), 49,531; Cushman (Rep.), 25,882; (total), 75,413; Jones (Dem.), 22,624; Dickinson (Pro.), 1,129; Haggard (Pro.), 1,182; Walker (social-labour), 962; Hamilton (social-labour), 229.

WASHINGTON NOTES. Representative Meyer of Louisiana today introduced in the house a bill appropriating $200,000 for the construction of a wide, deep channel from deep water of the Mississippi river to deep water of the Gulf of Mexico.

Fortunate Bicycle Riders. The members of the police department failed to find their monthly checks waiting for them as usual yesterday, and although an intensely interesting matter, it was only touched upon by the fire and police committee near the close of the session at the city hall last night.

Sensational Affair in a Main Street Saloon.

TRACY INGRAHAM JAILED. A MURDER NARROWLY AVERTED BY A BY-STANDER.

L. A. Copeland Charged With Violating the Eight-hour Law—The Woman Horse thief—Hugo Deutchman Pleads Not Guilty—Fred Turner Discharged.

Tracy Ingraham is under arrest for an alleged assault with a deadly weapon upon W. W. Miller of Miller & Swain's saloon, at the corner of Main and Market street, Sunday night.

The circumstances of the arrest are related by the police as follows: Ingraham went into this saloon Sunday, and Miller accused him of having taken some cigars, and furthermore, "dred" him out. He came back about 9 o'clock, armed with a shotgun, which he secured from Fox's livery stable, where he had been working.

Plends Not Guilty. Hugo Deutchman yesterday pleaded not guilty before Judge Timmony yesterday on the charge of obtaining money under false pretenses by passing a worthless check upon Louis Hobein of the Star saloon.

THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW. A complaint was filed in Justice McMaster's court by Hyram Evans yesterday, charging L. A. Copeland with violating the eight-hour law.

THE FEMALE HORSE THIEF. Eugene Green and Teresa Reeves, who were arrested Saturday at Redwood, yesterday, were charged with the theft of a horse belonging to the Taylor & Brunson Sampling company.

TURNER DISCHARGED. The case against Fred Turner, charged with resorting to a house of prostitution, was dismissed in police court yesterday on account of the non-appearance of the prosecuting witness.

POLICE NOTES. Susan Tullidge was lodged in jail today on a charge of disturbing the peace. Her father, being John Paulson, came up and pleaded in vain to secure her release.
